

The 2nd International Yachties Film Festival (IYFF) will take place on Saturday, September 24, 2011, in Fakarava in the Tuamotu Archipelago in French Polynesia.

The Festival is organized by yachties for yachties. It is open to all yachts and is an opportunity to get together to share our experiences and have fun.

Program for Saturday, September 24, 2011, at sunset:

- Gathering of the jury and competitors.
- Big screen projection of the films for the "Golden Coconut for Best Film – Open Theme".
- Big screen projection of in-theme films.
- Pot luck buffet and deliberation of the jury.
- Golden Coconut Award presentations.
- Party, music and dance.

Who can participate:

The Festival is free of charge and open to all crew who are not a professional in film or video production. Films can be a montage of video clips, photographs or both and should be 2 to 8 minutes in length. This year's theme is "Polynesia". The films with in the theme will compete for five awards and the films outside the theme will compete for one award.

We are also searching for Jury members so please let us know if you are interested!

The Golden Coconut awards will be:

- Best Film
- Best Screenplay
- Best Picture
- Best Soundtrack
- Best Technical Editing
- Best Film – Open Theme

How to participate?

- You may pre-register by e-mail by September 1, 2011
- You can also make a last minute registration on Friday, September 23, 2011 in Fakarava.

Attention: Based on the number of participates, the committee of the Festival may have to refuse last minute registrations, so register early to guarantee your involvement!

Information and rules: yachtiesfestival.blogspot.com

Contact and registration: yachtiesfestival@gmail.com